

Rocky Ridge Music Center

nurtures the creative, musical and personal development of youth in an inspirational setting. Founded in 1942 by pianist Beth Miller Harrod, Rocky Ridge is one of the oldest summer music programs in the country. We are located in the heart of Rocky Mountain National Park at 465 Longs Peak Road, Estes Park, CO 80517—phone: 970-586-4031 www.rockyridge.org.

Young Artist Seminar (YAS)

Ages 15 to 24 (audition required)

June 30 to August 2

$3250 includes room and board

Young Artist Seminar (YAS) students receive v e two 45-minute private lessons per week on their primary instrument and an optional 45-minute lesson per week on their secondary instrument for an additional fee. Their studies also include chamber music, chamber string orchestra, chamber wind symphony, and masterclasses.

Junior Student Seminar- 1- Intensive

Ages 10 to 15 (audition required)

June 12 to June 28

$1950 includes room and board

Junior Student Seminar 1(JSS1) is designed to meet the needs of accomplished young musicians who enjoy challenges and thrive in an intense and concentrated musical environment. In addition to their solo studies, students have the opportunity to develop their musical skills through chamber music, wind ensemble, orchestra, piano class, performance, choir and theory/composition class.

Junior Student Seminar 2

Ages 10 – 15 (audition required)

August 4-16

$1525 includes room and board

Junior Student Seminar 2 (JSS2) is ideal for your musicians who are looking to broaden and improve their musical skills in a nurturing and creative environment. The JSS curriculum includes private lessons, chamber music, string or wind ensemble, theory/composition, studio class, Dalcroze Eurhythmics, performance classes and recitals.

Adult Guitar Seminar

Ages 18+

August 19 to August 23

$750 includes room and board

Adult Guitar Seminar students join other classical guitarists to further their skills under the tutelage of a master teacher. Students receive lessons in a group setting, ensemble coachings and technique classes. The seminar culminates in student and faculty concerts.

Adult Piano Seminar

Ages 18+

August 19 to August 23

$750 includes room and board

Adult Piano Seminar students provides a high level of instruction while giving each participant the freedom to establish comfortable goals for themselves and interact with other pianists. Private lessons, coachings on technique, masterclasses and lecture-recitals by resident faculty and guest artists.