

SUSTAINABILITY SEMINAR

TOWARD A SUSTAINABLE WORLD: BUILDING
THE NEXT GENERATION OF DEVELOPMENT
PROFESSIONALS AT CU

Dr. William Shutkin

Director, Initiative for Sustainable Development and Chair in Sustainable Development

Date: Friday March 13, 2009

Time: 11:00 am – 12:00 pm

Location: North Classroom 1607

The University of Colorado Boulder's Initiative for Sustainable Development ("ISD") educates, activates and unites stakeholders from across the University, the West, and the nation in pursuit of the best ideas, practices and policies in the growing field of sustainable land use and real estate development.

A global leader in sustainability and social entrepreneurship, Bill joined the faculty of the Leeds School of Business at the University of Colorado Boulder in July 2008. He is also a founding Partner of the Innovation Network for Communities, a national organization launched in early 2007 to develop and spread scalable social innovations in areas such as economic development and urban sustainability, and a Research Affiliate at MIT.

For more information contact: Luann Rudolph – 303.556.6086 – luann.rudolph@ucdenver.edu